

Daily Life - Moving (C0149)

A: Ok, that's fine. Bye.

B: What happened?

A: That's it, my lease is up. I have to move.

B: What? Why? Can't you renew it?

A: The owner apparently is selling this place to make way for the construction of a parking lot

B: Well, I can help you pack. We should start looking for a new place for you ASAP.

A: I think I might move in with my parents for a couple of months until I can find something. You know how hard it is to find a decent place around here. I'm gonna have to put most of my stuff in storage for a while.

B: Well, let me know if there's anything I can do to help out.

A: Actually, would you mind looking after my pet tarantula and snake for a couple of weeks?

B: hehe.. sure

Key Vocabulary

lease	common singular	noun,	A contract granting use of property renew	verb		to cause something to continue to be effective pack	verb		wrap up pack	verb		to put articles in a case or container for moving place	common singular	noun,	A building or an area storage	common singular	noun,	A space for storing goods look after	phrase		take care of make way for	phrase		to create space for something else ASAP			as soon as possible decent	Adjective		good look after phrase

take care of

Supplementary Vocabularymoving truck*common noun,
singular*

a big truck that can be hired or rented to carry furniture and boxes to another place bubble

wrap*common noun,
singular*

transparent plastic material commonly used for packing fragile items real estate

agent*common noun,
singular*

One that is authorized to sell land or property deposit

*common noun,
singular*

A sum of money given as security for an item acquired for temporary use.

movers

*common noun,
singular*

One that transports household or office goods from one location to another as an occupation