

Lesson Introduction

A last will and testament is very important to help take care of a person's family after they have passed. In this lesson we show how this person has formally made a last will.
