

Daily Life - Facial Hair (C0223)

Officer: Ok Sally, we have an artist here to help us.

Brown: We'll ask you questions about the bank robber you saw and Paul will draw a picture. Are you ready?

Sally: Yes, hmmm. Well, he had brown hair..... long hair..... and he had some facial hair..... was brown, too.

Officer: Good! Ok, the facial hair, was it a beard or a Brown: mustache?

Sally: Both! His mustache was very short and thin, on the top of his lip.

Paul: un-uh hmmm... , like this?

Sally: Yes, that's the mustache! But the beard isn't right, mean, it didn't cover his whole face.... think it was just on his chin.

Officer: A goatee? Was it like Paul's?

Brown:

Sally: Ah yes, that's it, he had a goatee.....

Paul: Okay, what about sideburns? Did he have sideburns?

Sally: Um, they were long and thick, yours!

Paul: Alright, was this the man you saw?

Sally: Yes, that's him! Hmmmmm, he looks a lot like you.

Officer Brown: Hmm, why yes he does. Paul, where were you on Friday afternoon?

Paul: What? That's ridiculous! It wasn't me! I didn't do anything.

Key Vocabulary

facial hair	P	hair on the face
beard	N	the hair growing on the lower part of a man's face
mustache	N	an unshaved growth of hair on the upper lip

goatee	N	a small chin beard trimmed into a point
sideburns	N	hair that grows on the sides of man
thick	A	not thin; great in extent from the surface ridiculous	A	very unreasonable or silly
why yes	P	as a matter of fact

Supplementary Vocabulary

Sketch Artist	N	A person who can draw a face from instruction
razor	N	a sharp instrument used to shave a beard
Shaving cream	N	a lather applied to the face for a smooth shave
Hair Clippers	N	An electric machine that cuts hair

Muttonchops N

Sideburns that are long and extend towards the corner of the mouth