Elementary - Calling In Sick (B0002)

A:	Hello,	Daniel	speaking,	how	may	I help	you'
A :	nello,	Daniei	speaking,	HOW	шау	гпеір	you

Hi Daniel, Julie here. B:

Hi Julie, how are you? A:

Actually I'm feeling quite ill today. В:

Oh, I'm sorry to hear that. What's wrong?

I think I'm coming down with the flu. I have a headache, a sore throat, a runny nose and I'm feeling slightly feverish.

I see.... so you're calling in sick? A:

Yes. I was hoping to take the day off to recover. B:

Ok then. Try and get some rest.

Key Vocabulary

how may I help Phrase Polite offer to help you?

quite ill Phrase very sick coming down Phrase getting, acquiring calling in sick Phrase report that you will not go to work because you are sick

was hoping Phrase to kindly expect

Supplementary Vocabulary symptom Noun (sina sign, indication gular)

permission Noun (sinallow qular)

impolite Adjectiveunfriendly sick day Phrase day off because you're sick

make it into work Phrase will not go to work